

Profile of CA Ashish Garg

CA Ashish Garg is qualified Chartered Accountant and a graduate in Law from University of Delhi. Since, 2010 he has been dealing with Indirect tax issues and has a specialization in Service Tax and GST. He has been engaged extensively with the compliance and advisory work for various national and international clients. He has been able to provide solutions to the complex issues of Indirect Taxation with his keen intelligence and good analytical skills.

He is man of his caliber and his being young and enthusiastic, allows him to learn new things every day. His additional qualification in Law helps him understanding and interpreting the complex provision of statute and decode them in more practical manner.

He has a hands-on experience in dealing with various complex issues involved in service tax and has an elaborative record of liaising with Department officials for the benefits of his clients. He renders advisory, planning and compliance services to his corporate clients on service tax and GST matters.

He has authored various articles on Indirect Tax issues and GST published on various web portals and journals.

His result oriented approach ensures the client's benefit in terms of having the most efficient solution.